The Order for Morning Prayer.

¶ The Service shall be the same with the usual Office for Holy-days, except where it is in this Office otherwise appointed.

¶ Let him that ministereth, read with a loud Voice these Sentences of Scripture; and after them the Exhortation, Dearlly beloved Brethren, &c.

D O R D, correct me, but with judgement, not in thine anger, lest thou bring me to nothing. Jer. x. 24.

I will arise, and go to my father, St. Luke xv. 18, 19. and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee, and am no more worthy to be called thy son.

¶ Instead of the Venite, this Hymn shall be used.

T H E sacrifice of God is a troubled spirit: a broken and contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise. Psal. li. 17.

I said, I will confess my sins unto the Lord: and so thou wilt forgive all the wickedness of my sin. Psal. xxxii. 6.

Morning Prayer.

Pſalm
xviii. 1.

I will love thee, O Lord, my strength: the Lord is my ſtony rock and my defence; my Saviour, my God, the horn alſo of my ſalvation, and my refuge.

Pſalm
xviii. 2.

I will call upon the Lord, which is worthy to be praised: ſo ſhall I be ſafe from mine Enemies.

Pſalm
xxxii. 7.

For this ſhall every one that is godly make his prayer unto thee, in a time when thou mayeſt be found.

Pſalm

Morning Prayer.

¶ These Two Collects to be used instead of the First Collect for Morning Prayer.

O Almighty God, who rulest over all the kingdoms of the earth, and on whose most gracious providence they depend evermore for preservation and prosperity; Extend thine accustomed goodness to the people of this land, who, looking up to thee as the supreme Author of all blessings, and their sure Safeguard and mighty Deliverer in all dangers and difficulties, do now implore thy watchful care and protection; beseeching thee to guide them continually with thy counsel, to strengthen them with thy powerful arm, and to crown their necessary endeavours, against the unjust attempts of their Enemies, with perpetual success, through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

O Lord God of our salvation, in whose hands are the issues of life and death, of good and evil, and without whose aid the wisest counsels of frail men, and the multitude of an host, and all the instruments of war, are but weak and vain; Incline thine ear, we pray thee, to the earnest and devout supplications of thy servants; who, not confiding in the splendor of any thing that is great, or the stability of any thing that is strong, here below, do most humbly flee, O Lord, unto thee for succour, and put their trust under the shadow of thy wings. Be thou to us a tower of defence against the assaults of our Enemies, our shield and buckler in the day of battle; and so bless the arms of our gracious Sovereign, in the maintenance of his just and lawful rights, and the advancement of the welfare of his Kingdoms, that we being preserved by thy help and goodness from all perils and disasters, and made happily triumphant over all the disturbers of our peace, may joyfully laud and magnify thy glorious Name; and serve thee from generation to generation in all godliness and quietness, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then shall follow the Second and Third Collects at Morning
Prayer: And the Litany.

¶ After the Prayer in the End of the Litany [We humbly beseech thee, &c.] the People shall say this that followeth, after the Minister:

TURN thou us, O good Lord, and so shall we be turned. Be favourable, O Lord, Be favourable to thy people, Who turn to thee in weeping, fasting, and praying. For thou art a merciful God, full of compassion, Long-suffering, And of great pity. Thou sparest when we deserve punishment, And in thy wrath thinkest upon mercy. Spare thy people, good Lord, spare them, And let not thine heritage be brought to confusion. Hear us, O Lord, for thy mercy is great; And after the multitude of thy mercies look upon us, Through the merits and mediation of thy blessed Son Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

*vide Communion Service, O Lord
beseech us.*

O Lord, most good and powerful, we thy sinful people, here assembled before thee, do acknowledge it thine unspeakable mercy, that for our manifold and heinous provocations we are not utterly consumed, and given over for a prey to the Enemy and Avenger. We confess, with sorrow and confusion, our long unfruitfulness under the means of grace, the light of thy gospel, and the many wonderful

derful deliberances of this Church and State, which thou, in thy great goodness, hast vouchsafed unto us. O Lord, shouldest thou enter into judgement with us for the crying sins of this nation, our profaneness and infidelity, heresies and schisms, our gross impurities, and other manifold offences, thou mightest justly inflict upon us the severity of thy wrath, and deliver us up to the reproaches and insults of our Enemies: but there is mercy with thee, therefore shalt thou be feared: thou art the Lord God, tender and full of compassion, not willing that any should perish, but that all should repent and live. Look down therefore, we beseech thee, with an eye of pity and loving-kindness upon thy servants, who, with broken and contrite hearts, do here bewail our transgressions and wretchedness. Let our land, in this time of trouble, still enjoy the light of thy countenance, and the blessings of thy bountiful hand; let thy unerring wisdom turn all our disappointments to our advantage; and so work upon our hearts and minds by the gracious influences of thy Holy Spirit, that being turned from the error of our ways, and created to newness of life, we may walk before thee in all righteousness and holiness in this world, and inherit thine everlasting Kingdom in that which is to come, through the merits of Jesus Christ our only Mediator and Advocate. Amen.

¶ In the Time of War and Tumults.

O Almighty God, King of all kings, and Governor of all things, whose power no creature is able to resist, to whom it belongeth justly to punish sinners, and to be merciful to them that truly truly repent; Save and deliver us, we humbly beseech thee, from the hands of our Enemies; abate their pride, assuage their malice, and confound their devices; that we, being armed with thy defence, may be preserved evermore from all perils, to glorify thee, who art the only giver of all victory, through the merits of thy only Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for the High Court of Parliament.

MOST gracious God, we humbly beseech thee, as for this Kingdom in general, so especially for the High Court of Parliament, under our most religious and gracious King at this time assembled; That thou wouldest be pleased to direct and prosper all their Consultations, to the Advancement of thy glory, the good of thy Church, the safety, honour, and welfare of our Sovereign and his Kingdoms; that all things may be so ordered and settled, by their endeavours, upon the best and surest foundations, that peace and happiness, truth and justice, religion and piety, may be established among us for all generations. These, and all other necessities, for them, for us, and thy whole Church, we humbly beg in the Name and mediation of Jesus Christ our most blessed Lord and Saviour. Amen.

¶ The General Thanksgiving.

ALMIGHTY God, Father of all mercies, we, thine unworthy servants, do give thee most humble and hearty thanks for all thy goodness and loving-kindness to us and to all men [* particularly to those, who desire now to offer up their praises and thanksgivings for thy late mercies vouchsafed unto them] We bless thee for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life; but above all, for thine inestimable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ; for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory. And we beseech thee, give us that due sense of all thy mercies, that our hearts may be unfeignedly thankful; and that we may shew forth thy praise, not only with our lips, but in our lives; by giving up ourselves to thy service, and by walking before thee in holiness and righteousness all our days, through Jesus Christ our Lord; to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

¶ A Prayer of St. Chrysostom.

A Almighty God, who hast given us grace, at this time, with one accord to make our common supplications unto thee; and dost promise, that when two or three are gathered together in thy Name, thou wilt grant their requests: Fulfil now, O Lord, the desires and petitions of thy servants, as may be most expedient for them; granting us in this world knowledge of thy truth, and in the world to come life everlasting. Amen.

2 Cor. XIII. 14.

THE grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.

Here endeth the Order of Morning Prayer.

The

The Communion Service.

¶ After the Prayer for the King [Almighty God, whose Kingdom is everlasting] shall be read the Two Collects of the Day, as in the Morning Prayer [O Almighty God; O Lord God, &c.] and then shall follow

The Epistle. Ephes. VI. Ver. 10.

Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might. Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.

The Gospel. St. Luke XIII. Ver. 1.

THERE were present at that season some that told him of the Galileans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices. And Jesus answering,

The Communion Service.

Answering, said unto them, Suppose ye that these Galileans were sinners above all the Galileans, because they suffered such things? I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish. Of those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Siloam fell, and slew them, think ye that they were sinners above all men that dwell in Jerusalem? I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish. He spake also this parable; A certain man had a fig-tree planted in his vineyard; and he came and sought fruit thereon, and found none. Then said he unto the dresser of his vineyard, Behold, these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig-tree, and find none: cut it down; why cumbereth it the ground? And he answering, said unto him, Lord, let it alone this year also, till I shall dig about it, and dung it: and if it bear fruit, well: and if not, then after that thou shalt cut it down.

¶ Then shall be said the following Creed:

I Believe in one God, the Father Almighty, Maker of Heaven and Earth, And of all things visible and invisible:

And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God, Begotten of his Father before all worlds; God of God, Light of light, Very God of very God, Begotten, not made, Being of one substance with the Father, By whom all things were made: Who, for us men, and for our salvation, came down from heaven, And was incarnate by the Holy Ghost of the Virgin Mary, And was made man, And was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate. He suffered, and was buried, And the third day day he rose again, according to the Scriptures, And ascended into heaven, And sitteth on the right hand of the Father. And he shall come again with glory to judge both the quick and the dead: Whose kingdom shall have no end.

And I believe in the Holy Ghost, The Lord and giver of life, Who proceedeth from the Father and the Son; Who, with the Father and the Son together, is worshipped and glorified, Who spake by the prophets. And I believe one Catholick and Apostolick Church; I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins; And I look for the Resurrection of the dead, And the Life of the world to come. Amen.

¶ Then shall follow the Sermon.

Let us pray for the whole State of Christ's Church Militant here in Earth.

A Lmighty and everliving God, who, by thy holy apostle, hast taught us to make prayers and supplications, and to give thanks for all men; We humbly beseech thee most mercifully [* to accept our alms and oblations, and] to receive these our prayers which we offer unto thy Divine Majesty; beseeching thee to inspire continually the universal Church with the spirit of truth, unity, and concord: and grant that all they that do confess thy holy Name, may agree in the truth of thy holy Word, and live in unity and godly love. We beseech thee also to save and defend all Christian kings, princes, and governors; and especially thy Servant GEORGE our King; that under Him we may be godly and quietly quietly governed: and grant unto his whole Council, and to all that are put in authority under him, that they may truly and indifferently minister justice, to the punishment of wickedness and vice, and to the maintenance of thy true religion and virtue. Give grace, O heavenly Father, to all Bishops and Curates; that they may both by their life and doctrine set forth thy true and lively Word, and rightly and duly administer thy holy Sacraments: and to all thy people give thy heavenly grace; and especially to this Congregation here present; that with meek heart, and due reverence, they may hear and receive thy holy Word, truly serving thee in holiness and righteousness all the days of their life. And we most humbly beseech thee, of thy goodness, O Lord, to comfort and succour all them, who in this transitory life are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity. And we also bless thy holy Name, for all thy servants departed this life in thy faith and fear; beseeching thee to give us grace to follow their good examples, that with them we may be partakers of thy heavenly Kingdom. Grant this, O Father, for Jesus Christ's sake, our only Mediator and Advocate. Amen.

* If there be no alms or oblations, then shall the words [of accept. of our alms and oblations] be left out unsaid.

A Prayer for this Church and Kingdom.

BLESSED Lord, who at sundry times and in divers manners hast manifested thine abundant favour to these realms, in thy marvellous protection of our religion, laws, and liberties, from the secret conspiracies, and open attempts, of malicious Enemies; We, adoring thy glorious Majesty with all praises and thanksgivings for the same, beseech thee to preserve preserve evermore in our minds such a lively memory, and grateful sense, of these thine invaluable mercies, that by our exemplary and religious use of them, and happy improvements under them, to thy honour and service, we may be accounted worthy of the continuance of thy blessings to us and our posterity. Take away from us, O Lord, all hardness of heart, all neglect of thine ordinances, and contempt of thy word; and endue us with a spirit of piety and devotion, a spirit of justice and temperance, of humility and charity, and of all other graces which adorn the Christian profession; that so thy dreadful displeasure and judgements may be ever averted from us, and iniquity not become our ruin. Be thou pleased also, with thine especial favour, to guard and prosper our gracious Sovereign King GEORGE, with all the Royal Family. Be thou to Him, O Lord, an helmet of salvation against His Enemies that delight in war. Do thou, we pray thee, blast their wicked designs, defeat their stratagems; and so put them to flight and confusion before His face, that the terror of His arms may add dignity and lustre to His crown, and bring safety, joy, and happiness, to Himself and His Kingdoms. Grant this, O merciful Father, for Jesus Christ's sake, to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

A Prayer for all the Reformed Churches.

O GOD, the Father of mercies, who; of thy great goodness, hast admitted us into thy holy Church, the mystical body of Christ, We, as living members thereof, mourning with them that mourn, mourn, and rejoicing with them that reioice, do now present our supplications and prayers at the throne of grace, more especially in behalf of all our Reformed Brethren; beseeching thee to make them perfect, stablish, strengthen them, that they may stand fast in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made them free; to preserve the tranquillity of those who at present enjoy it, and to look down with an eye of pity upon those, who are in distress or persecution on account of thy most holy Religion. Suffer not unreasonable and wicked men still to triumph over thy heritage. Plead thy cause with them that blaspheme thy truth, and persecute thy people. Enlighten those who are in darkness and error, and give them repentance to the acknowledgement of the truth; that all the ends of the earth may remember themselves, and be turned to the Lord; and we may all become one flock, under the great Shepherd and Bishop of our souls, Jesus Christ, our blessed Saviour and Redeemer. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for Unity.

O God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ our only Saviour, the Prince of Peace; Look down in much Pity and Compassion upon this Church and Nation, now seeking unto thee in fasting and Prayer; and grant, we beseech thee, that our humiliation and repentance may have that blessed effect, that we may all cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in thy fear. Give us grace, O Lord, seriously to lay to heart the great dangers we are in by our unhappy Divisions. Take away all hatred and prejudice, and whatsoever else may hinder hinder us from godly union and concord; that as there is but one body and one spirit, and one hope of our calling, one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of us all: so we may henceforth be all of one heart and of one soul, united in one holy bond of truth and peace, of faith and charity, and may with one mind and one mouth glorify thee, O God, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Almighty God, who hast promised to hear the petitions of them that ask in thy Son's Name; We beseech thee mercifully to incline thine ears to us that have made now our prayers and supplications unto thee; and grant that those things which we have faithfully asked according to thy will, may effectually be obtained, to the relief of our necessity, and to the setting forth of thy glory, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then the Priest (or Bishop, if he be present) shall let them depart with this Blessing:

THE peace of God, which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord: and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be amongst you, and remain with you always. Amen.

¶ The Second Collect at Evening Prayer.

O God, from whom all holy desires, all good counsels, and all just works do proceed; Give unto thy servants that peace which the world cannot give; that both our hearts may be set to obey thy commandments, and also that by thee we being defended from the fear of our Enemies, may pass our time in rest and quietness, through the merits of Jesus Christ our Saviour. Lighten our darkness, we beseech thee, O Lord; and by thy great mercy defend us from all perils and dangers of this night, for the love of thy only Son our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

¶ Then the People shall say this that followeth, after the Minister:

TURN thou us, O good Lord, and so shall we be turned. Be favourable, O Lord, Be favourable to thy people, Who turn to thee in weeping, fasting, and praying. O Lord most good and powerful, we, thy sinful people here assembled before thee, do acknowledge it thine unspeakable mercy, that for our manifold manifold and heinous provocations we are not utterly

 consumed, and given over for a prey to the Enemy and Avenger. We confess, with sorrow and confusion, our long unfruitfulness under the means of grace, the light of thy gospel, and the many wonderful deliverances of this Church and State, which thou, in thy great goodness, hast vouchsafed unto us. O Lord, shouldest thou enter into judgement with us for the crying sins of this nation,
 our profaneness and infidelity, heresies and schisms,
 our gross impurities, and other manifold offences, thou mightest justly inflict upon us the severity of thy wrath, and deliver us up to the reproaches and insults of our Enemies: but there is mercy with thee, therefore shalt thou be feared: thou art the Lord God, tender and full of compassion, not willing that any should perish, but that all should repent and live. Look down therefore, we beseech thee, with an eye of pity and loving-kindness upon thy servants, who, with broken and contrite hearts, do here bewail our transgressions and wretchedness. Let our land, in this time of trouble, still enjoy the light of thy countenance, and the blessings of thy bounti-

¶ A Collect or Prayer for all Conditions of Men.

O God, the creator and preserver of all mankind, we humbly beseech thee for all sorts and conditions of men, that thou wouldest be pleased to make thy ways known unto them; thy saving health unto all Nations. More especially we pray for the good estate of the Catholick Church; that it may be so guided and governed by thy good Spirit, that all, who profess and call themselves Christians, may be led into the way of truth, and hold the faith in unity of spirit, in the bond of peace, and in righteousness of life. Finally, we commend to thy fatherly goodness all those, who are any ways afflicted or distressed in mind, body, or estate [* especially those for whom our prayers are desired] that it may please thee to comfort and relieve them according to their several necessities; giving them patience under their sufferings, and a happy issue out of all their afflictions. And this we beg for Jesus Christ his sake. Amen.

* This to be said when any desire the prayers of the congregation.

¶ The General Thanksgiving.

A Almighty God, Father of all mercies, we, thine unworthy servants, do give thee most humble and hearty thanks, for all thy goodness and loving-kindness to us and to all men [* particularly to those who desire now to offer up their praises and thanksgivings for thy late mercies vouchsafed unto them] We bless thee for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life; but above all, for thine inestimable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ; for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory. And we beseech thee, give us that due sense of all thy mercies, that our hearts may be unfeignedly thankful; and that we may shew forth thy praise, not only with our lips, but in our lives; by giving up ourselves to thy service, and by walking before thee in holiness and righteousness all our days, through Jesus Christ our Lord; to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for this Church and Kingdom.

Blessed Lord, who, at sundry times, and in divers manners, hast manifested thine abundant favour to these Realms, in thy marvellous protection of our religion, laws, and liberties, from the secret conspiracies, and open attempts of malicious Enemies; We, adoring thy glorious Majesty with all praises and thanksgivings for the same, beseech thee to preserve evermore in our minds such a lively memory, and grateful sense of these thine invaluable mercies, that by our exemplary and religious use of them, and happy improvements under them, to thy honour and service, we may be accounted worthy of the continuance of thy blessings to us and our posterity. Take away from us, O Lord, all hardness of heart, all neglect of thine ordinances, and contempt of thy word; and endue us with a spirit of piety and devotion, a spirit of justice and temperance, of humility and charity, and of all other graces, which adorn the Christian profession; that so thy dreadful displeasure and judgements may be ever averted from us, and iniquity not become our ruin. Be thou pleased also, with thine especial favour, to guard and prosper our gracious Sovereign King GEORGE, with all the Royal Family. Be thou to him, O Lord, an helmet of salvation against his Enemies that delight in war. Do thou, we pray thee, blast their wicked designs, defeat

defeat their stratagems, and so put them to flight and confusion before his face, that the terror of his arms may add dignity and lustre to his Crown, and bring safety, joy, and happiness to himself and his Kingdoms. Grant this, O merciful Father, for Jesus Christ's sake; to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for all the Reformed Churches.

O GOD, the Father of mercies, who, of thy great goodness, hast admitted us into thy holy Church, the mystical body of Christ; We, as living members thereof, mourning with them that mourn, and rejoicing with them that rejoice, do now present our supplications and prayers at the throne of grace, more especially in behalf of all our Reformed Brethren; beseeching thee to make them perfect, stablish, strengthen them, that they may stand fast in the liberty where-with Christ hath made them free; to preserve the tranquillity of those, who at present enjoy it; and to look down with an eye of pity upon those, who are in distress or persecution, on account of thy most holy Religion. Suffer not unreasonable and wicked men still to triumph over thy heritage. Plead thy cause with them that blaspheme thy truth, and persecute thy people. Enlighten those who are in darkness and error, and give them repentance to the acknowledgement of the truth; that all the ends of the earth may remember themselves, and be turned to the Lord: and we may all become one flock under the great Shepherd and Bishop of our souls, Jesus Christ, our blessed Saviour and Redeemer. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for Unity.

O God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, our only Saviour, the Prince of Peace, Look down in

Evening Prayer.

in much pity and compassion upon this church and nation, now seeking unto thee in fasting and Prayer; and grant, we beseech thee, that our humiliation and repentance may have that blessed effect, that we may all cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in thy fear. Give us grace, O Lord, seriously to lay to heart the great dangers we are in by our unhappy Divisions. Take away all hatred and prejudice, and whatsoever else may hinder us from godly union and concord; that as there is but one body and one spirit, and one hope of our calling, one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of us all; so we may henceforth be all of one heart and of one soul, united in one holy bond of truth and peace, of faith and charity, and may with one mind and one mouth glorify thee, O God, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ A Prayer of St. Chrysostom.

A Almighty God, who hast given us grace, at this time, with one accord to make our common supplications unto thee; and dost promise, that when two or three are gathered together in thy Name, thou wilt grant their requests: Fulfil now, O Lord, the desires and petitions of thy servants, as may be most expedient for them; granting us in this world knowledge of thy truth, and in the world to come life everlasting. Amen.

2 Cor. XIII. 14.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.
